

House Resolution No. 2949

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives proudly pause to recognize those special young people who have exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in state government; and

Whereas, Anna Comstock of the University of Missouri-Columbia has attained distinction as an Intern assigned to the office of House Communications; and

Whereas, Anna Comstock joined the staff of House Communications for the Second Regular Session of the Ninety-second General Assembly as part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the state capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in governmental processes through active participation; and

Whereas, Anna Comstock has experienced the opportunity to observe firsthand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which members of the Legislature interact with governmental agencies, the media, and constituents; and

Whereas, Anna Comstock has demonstrated considerable abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, helping with constituent services, and assuming various responsibilities to make the office of House Communications run as smoothly as possible, including writing press releases, making press calls, and assisting with photography; and

Whereas, Anna Comstock has earned recognition as a valuable asset to House Communications and the entire Missouri Legislature through the application of knowledge and skills acquired prior to arriving as an Intern and a variety of visible new skills which will be of tremendous value in the job market:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, hereby proudly join the Honorable Catherine L. Hanaway in commending Anna Comstock for many important contributions to our State Legislature during the current session, and further extend our very best wishes for continued success and happiness in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Anna Comstock, as a measure of our deep gratitude.

Offered by Speaker Catherine L. Hanaway
District No. 87

I, Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 2949, adopted May 11, 2004.
